

Name: Year One

Subject: History

- Can construct a timeline by placing objects in chronological order (dates)
- Can recognise and compare between past and present, in their own and other people's lives.
- Can construct a timeline by placing objects in order within living memory (personal life)
- Can recognise that there are reasons why people acted the way they did (Edison -significant figure)

Maths Links

- Can use common words and phrases relating to the passing of time (before, after etc)
- Can sort toys using a Venn diagram
- Can collect and represent data using a bar graph (favourite toy)
- Can design and create wrapping paper using shape and pattern
- Can compare and order toys (height/weight)

Subject: Art/D.T.

- Can use a variety of materials and processes (sketching, pointillism, colour mixing)
- Can evaluate my product and think about how I can make it better.
- Can pictures and words to describe what I want to do.
- Can use a range of tools and materials, with help where needed, to measure, mark out, cut and shape (toy making)

Topic Title:

A Volcano of Toys

Book(s):

The Elves and the Shoemaker

Topic Starter:

Naughty elves steal toys and drop them around the school

Topic Character(s):

Edgar the Elf, Father Christmas

Values/Citizenship

Challenge Charlie: To find out about the past and explore technology today.

Creative Christoph: Learn new art techniques and share creative ideas with each other.

Teamwork Trio: Make a group Toy, advertise and present it working together in a group.

Value British toy making scalextric, Raleigh, Hornby etc.

Subject: Science

- Can name, identify and describe the simple physical properties of every day materials
- Can investigate how an electrical circuit works using simple equipment
- Can observe the changes across the four seasons
- Can identify, name and label basic parts of the human body
- Can explore light and understand the purpose

English Links

- Can find answers to some simple questions about the past from sources of information (old toy - non-fiction).
- Can label a picture correctly
- Can write a simple list
- Can write a letter to the elves
- Can create a missing toys poster
- Can write about a picture