Extreme Reading Challenge

Dear Parents/Carers,

With World Book Day fast approaching, we are excited to launch our Half Term Extreme Reading Challenge. This challenge is all about reading in unusual or creative places. Children are invited to take a photo of themselves reading somewhere unusual. Please support your child's creativity and help them to find somewhere they can safely enjoy a book.

Please email your child's photo to admin.np@kingsacademies.uk. The deadline for entries is Friday 27th February 2026.

The School Council will choose the most extreme read in each year group. Winners will be able to select a book of their choice from a special selection provided by the school.

We hope you will encourage your child to get creative and have fun with their reading this half term. It is a fantastic way to celebrate the joy of books and imagination.

Thank you for your support, and we look forward to seeing all the exciting entries.

Kind regards,

Miss Dalton, Mrs Saunders and Mrs Newton
